IN THE COURT OF APPEAL OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA
FIRST APPELLATE DISTRICT
DIVISION THREE

THE PEOPLE,

Plaintiff and Respondent,

v.

LYLE FRANCES BEHAG,

Defendant and Appellant.

A124564

(Lake County
Super. Ct. No. CR914659)

Lyle Frances Behag appeals following his no contest plea to unlawful cultivation of marijuana. Counsel has briefed no issues and asks for our review of the record of the proceedings. (People v. Wende (1979) 25 Cal.3d 436.) Behag has not filed a supplemental brief. We have reviewed the record and affirm.

DISCUSSION

According to the probation report, Lake County sheriff's deputies conducted a probation search of Behag's residence and found more than 400 growing marijuana plants, along with drying and processed marijuana that weighed more than seven pounds. The deputies also found a digital scale and a calendar with growing instructions. An information charged Behag with possession of marijuana for sale and unlawful cultivation of marijuana. Behag entered a no contest plea to unlawful cultivation of marijuana, and the remaining charge was dismissed. Behag was sentenced to serve the mid-term of two years in prison and to pay fines and fees as provided by statute.¹ Behag was also ordered to serve a 90-day concurrent term for misdemeanor possession of marijuana in the case for which he was on probation at the time of the current offense. He received 597 days of custody credits. He timely appealed.

Behag was represented by counsel at all stages of the proceedings, and was advised of his rights and the consequences of his plea. There was no error in the sentence imposed. Appellate counsel advised Behag of his right to file a supplemental brief in this court within 30 days of counsel's opening brief, but no supplemental brief has been filed. Full review of the record reveals no issue that requires further briefing.

DISPOSITION

The judgment is affirmed.
